of this division and covered a sector of Tokyo,Karako Koshio is out of Tokyo for the time being just looking to escape life,Masaru Sukegawa decided to become a famous popstar and rumors say porn star being famous for her "work" in Germany where the BL00gore amendment was less strict,Senji Kiyomasa decided to be in underground fighting tournament,Idaki Hitara quit his teaching career and died at his daughter's grave from a massive heart attack as his blood burned the whole cementary yard,and as for Yo and Minatasuki they decided to be top sellers on the market of BL00gore to bring in lots of cash while their adopted brother that they got from one of the sewer tunnels as they escaped the agency Goki went onto elementary school...**

As the green haired men opened his illuminating yellow eyes and looked around the room he was in shock and his heart started beating off his chest until a needle was shot through him

"Please calm your self you have been brought back to life can you move your hand "said the lady with glasses

The boy tried so hard move his hand only to fail as he couldn't even move his head to give a no all he could do is move those yellow eyes across the gray room

"I'm guessing that's a no this is completely normal you may be alive but your body is still dead it may take hours to days for your brain receptors to kick in the first nerve to kick in after your eye movements will be your nose and tongue receptors I'm speeding up the process by injecting you with this"said the lady picking up a tube that injected his arm their was pure black liquid inside

"This enhanced you regenerative capacity very well you were like a goddamn disaster whatever the hell happened down there is beyond me"said the lady typing in her access code as the young men was injected with more black substance at a faster rate the dosage became more potent as he coughed up the black substance it tasted to him just like blood

"There now you can speak and breathe on your own but I'm afraid if I increase the dosage anymore you'll die from the lethality of the substance so we'll just deal with you being paralyzed for now"said the lady taking tubes out of his nose and mouth and cleaning up his mouth with a napkin

"Whhhhaattt yeeear-"said the young men before she closed his mouth

"It's 2029 try to do mouth exercises to help with the slurring,I'll leave you to your thoughts your memory is probably a blank right now get some rest we need to brush back up on your research"said the lady as the young men heard her close the door

(Hahaha so they still think I'm possessed by him I guess I'll just have to play doctor till I figure a way out here I wonder how the world is now)said the young men
